

Industrial Liaison Office

About Us

Welcome to the Industrial Liaison Office (ILO) at Mwala Technical and Vocational College. Our office serves as the vital link between the college and the industry, fostering a symbiotic relationship that benefits both our students and industry partners. By bridging the gap between academic learning and practical industry demands, we ensure that our students are well-prepared for the dynamic workforce.

Our Mission

Our mission is to create and nurture partnerships between Mwala Technical and Vocational College and various industry sectors. We aim to enhance the practical skills and employability of our students by providing them with opportunities for internships, industrial attachments, and collaborative projects with industry experts.

Our Services

The Industrial Liaison Office offers a range of services, including:

- Internship and Industrial Attachment Placements: Coordinating placements for students to gain hands-on experience in their respective fields.
- Industry Collaboration: Facilitating partnerships and collaborative projects between the college and industry partners.
- Career Guidance and Counseling: Providing students with career advice, job search strategies, and professional development resources.
- Workshops and Seminars: Organizing events featuring industry leaders to share insights and knowledge with students and faculty.
- Alumni Engagement: Maintaining a strong network of alumni who can contribute to the growth and development of current students.

Meet Our Industrial Liaison Officer

Madam June Benson

As the Industrial Liaison Officer at Mwala Technical and Vocational College, Madam June plays a pivotal role in building and maintaining relationships with industry partners. With extensive experience in Medical Engineering, she brings a wealth of knowledge and a deep understanding of industry needs. She is dedicated to ensuring that our students are well-prepared for their careers and that our partnerships with industry are mutually beneficial.

Why Partner with Us?

By partnering with the Industrial Liaison Office, companies gain access to a pool of talented and well-trained students who are eager to contribute to their organizations. Our students bring fresh perspectives, innovative ideas, and a strong work ethic to the workplace. Additionally, industry partners have the opportunity to influence the curriculum and training programs to better align with their needs and expectations.
